

Minister Sabine Oberhauser

Curriculum vitae

On 1 September 2014, Dr. Sabine Oberhauser was sworn in as the new Minister of Health by the Austrian President Dr. Heinz Fischer.

Personal details

Born on 30 August 1963 in Vienna
Married with two daughters

© Jeff Mangione

Qualifications

- 1997 Paediatrician
- 1997 General Practitioner
- 2002 Completed degree programme in Hospital Management at the Vienna University of Business and Economics
- 2003 Completed the Master of Advanced Studies (MAS) in Health Management programme at Danube University Krems

Work experience

- 1998-2010 Staff Representative in the National Union of Municipal Employees (GdG), released from duties
- 1999-2006 Member of the Council of the Vienna Medical Association
- 2001-2007 Chair of the Personnel Group Committee of Doctors in the National Union of Municipal Employees
- 2003-2006 Specialist adviser to the General Committee of the Vienna Medical Association

2003-2010	Chair of the Doctors' Working Group in the Austrian Trade Union Federation (ÖGB)
Since 2004	Member of the Board of the Association of Viennese Women's Refuges
2004-2006	Chair of the Austrian Women's Association (Österreichischer Frauenring)
2004-2006	Member of the Board of the European Women's Lobby
2004-2007	Member of the Provincial Health Council for Vienna
2004-2012	Vice-President of the Association of Social Democrat University Graduates, Intellectuals and Artists (BSA)
2004-2011	Chair of the Austrian Social Democrat Doctors' Group
2005-2009	Women's Chair of the BSA (see above)
2006-2014	Member of the Austrian Parliament, health spokeswoman of the parliamentary Social Democratic Party until 2013, and social affairs spokeswoman of the party from 2013
2007-2010	Deputy Chair of the Personnel Group Committee for Doctors in the National Union of Municipal Employees
2007-2013	Member of the Austrian Social and Health Forum
Since 2009	Deputy Women's Chair of the Social Democratic Party (SPÖ) in Hietzing (13th district of Vienna)
2009-1 Sep. 2014	Vice-President of the Austrian Trade Union Federation (ÖGB)
2011-2014	Deputy Chair of the Austrian Social Democrat Doctors' Group
Since 1 Sep. 2014	Minister of Health